Notation

Accidentals do not carry through the bar, even on immediate repetitions of a given pitch-name. Any pitch without an accidental should be assumed to be natural. Here and there, cautionary natural signs are given in order to provide clarity.

Pedaling indications should be taken only as suggestions, indicating where chords should be allowed to ring. Even where no pedal is marked, the performer is welcome to use it as they wish.

The many tempo changes should be understood more in terms of rubato than precise metrical relationships. Tempi may be approximated, but the performer should take care to observe the relationships between them in order to develop a rich idea of their dramatic potential.
